IS DR. TANNER DEAD?

Rumored Fatal Accident to the Famous Faster.

According to the Frankfort correspondent of the London Standard Dr. Tanner arrived in Amsterdam about a month ago, accompanied by his wife and two children, and put up at the Hotel Cornelius, remaining unnoticed by the whole continental press. For a week after his arrival in Amsterdam Dr. Tanner confined himself to his room in the hotel. It is reported that during this time he used to eat five or six meals a day with ravenous appetite besides consuming a large quantity of spirits. At length he informed his hotel keeper who he was and said that he had come to see Dr. Croff. This physician had in several Dutch papers expressed disbelief in the genuineness of Dr. Tanner's well known fast and declared the latter must have obtained nutriment by secret means. The object of Dr. Tanner in going to Amsterdam was to perform in Dr. Croff's house a fast similar to that which he had gone through in America last autumn. The wager was to be 50,000 francs or £2000. Dr. Croff, who was away at the time Dr. Tanner reached Amsterdam, returned home on the 18th ult. and at once sent a message to the American, who had begun to grow impatient of the delay. Rejoiced to hear that Dr. Croff had at length returned Dr. Tanner ran out of his room to the footing at the top of the stairs and fell to the bottom. The fall caused concussion of the brain and other injuries and the unfortunate faster breathed his last the very next day. The medical men of Amsterdam desired to open the body of Dr. Tanner but to this Mrs. Tanner, in spite of all their entreaties and offers, would not consent. She, however, agreed to let the body be weighed, when it was found that its weight was only 108 pounds. It will be remembered that at the end of his fast Dr. Tanner weighed ninety-six pounds.

Boycotting in Russia.

[London Telegraph, Aug. 4.]

For some five or six weeks past Prince Ivan Mikeladsa, a wealthy landowner, resident in the government of Kutais, has been at open war with the peasantry of Ontopo, Copana and Chos chi, villages situate upon his property, and, according to a Russian official organ, the Kawkas, no attempt has hitherto been made by the constituted authories of the above-mentioned province to intervene between the combatants. It appears that the Prince's tenantry claim a considerable portion of his estate farmed by them since the year 1819 upon the principle of dividing the harvest produce equally between their landlords and themselves, and His Highness has not unnaturally declined to recognize the validity of their pretensions. Toward the middle of June he gave them notice to quit; whereupon some three hundred of them appeared in arms before his country seat and endeavored to carry it by assault. The Prince, assisted by his domestic servants, succeeded in beating them off, killing two of their number and wounded several others. They then invested the place cutting off its inmates from all intercourse with the outer world, and according to the latest intelligence received at St. Petersburg are still steadfastly beseiging it. A second and third attempt to carry it by a coup de main have been brilliantly repulsed by the beleagured Prince, who on both occasions inflicted heavy loss upon his assailants. This sanguinary drama has been enacted within a mile of the Abaschi railway station. Its episodes are briefly narrated in the columns of the Kawkas, without any editorial comment whatever—a fact itself sufficiently significant of the stolid indifference with which the Russian official mind regards anarchy and disorder at present prevailing in the outlying provinces of the Muscovite Empire.

DEATH IN THE COFFEE POT.—The public are cautioned against purchasing imported California ground coffee. Its cheapness is its only recommendation. The ingredients are of the vilest description, as anyone using it will discover should he examine the grounds. During the perihelia of the planets people should be careful what they eat and drink. Don't allow your grocer to palm off his trash upon you, because it pays him better to sell it than the good article. Ask for FELL & Co.'s Coffee and take no other. *

AYER'S Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy to take in the spring of the year to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore the healthy tone and vigor of the whole physical mechanism, which often becomes impaired during the winter, by lack of open air exercise, and the want of sufficient care in the matter of diet. *

A FISH STORY.

A man has an artificial pond with at least 3,000 fish, each weighing from half a pound to two pounds, more or less. He also has a little girl, 5 years old, who has succeeded in training the fish so that she can go to the edge of the pond, and with a handful of crumbs feed them from her chubby hand. They have learned to jump out of the water and snatch worms from her fingers, and they are extremely fond of their little mistress. One day she lost her balance, and pitched headlong into the water where it was deep. She says that when she went "away down," she called lustily for help. Her cries quickly attracted her parents, and they were horrified at seeing the little girl floating upon the surface of the pond. The father rushed to the water's edge and reached out for his pet, and as he raised her from the water a perfectly solid mass of trout was found beneath her. These faithful subjects of the little Queen, as she fell, quickly gathered beneath her, and thus showed their love for their mistress by holding up her body until aid arrived, thus preventing her from meeting a watery grave.—Whitehall Times.

The Yale Fire.

We are the sole agents in British Columbia for the J. and J. TAYLOR, Toronto, Safe Works. Those safes have alll the modern improvements and are now made to withstand a fire equal to that at St. John or Chicago. The non-conducting flange is the latest of these improvements and has been adopted after the most severe tests of its fire-resisting qualities. Instead of castiron they now use galvanized homogeneous steel which is much stronger and tougher.

This new style of safe having so many practical advantages can be recommended as the best in the market.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.

A Lady's Hair Saved by its Use.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE will keep the hair in a strong and healthy condition by stimulating the roots of the hair and restoring the natural action upon which its growth depends. Twenty years ago a single bottle saved a lady's hair in a desperate case where everything had failed; and since that early success thousands of cases of Baldness, Dandruff, Loss of Hair and Irritation of the Scalp have yielded to this remedy. *

ASHCROFT RACES.—The annual meeting at Ashcroft will take place on the 5th and 6th October next. Many interesting races with liberal purses have been arranged and owners of fast stock should prepare for this, the most important meeting in the province. *

DENTISTRY.—Mr. R. B. Thompson, Dentist. Nitrous Oxide Gas (Laughing Gas) administered for the plainless extraction of teeth. Reduced charges for plate work. Office, upstairs in the Old Masonic Building, Government street. Hours, 9 a.m. to 5 p. m. *

Daily Colonist.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 23RD, 1881.

MR. W. HARRISON

Is the only person at Yale who is authorized to receive Subscriptions for the DAILY and WEEKLY COLONIST.

L. P. FISHER, Advertising Agent, 21 Merchants Exchange, San Francisco, is authorised to receive advertisements for the columns of this paper.

THE MAINLAND MAIL MATTER.

The Herald has placed itself right on the question of more frequent mail service. It avers that it would not object to the receipt of the mails at the hands of the Through to Yale boat. Well, then, let our contemporary urge upon its readers to call a public meeting—they are "heavy" on public meetings at New Westminster—and request the postal authorities to forward a mail by every steamer that may leave this port for the Mainland. That would give them a service four times a-week instead of twice a-week as at present. Victoria receives a mail only three times a week—so that by employing the services of the through boats the Mainland would have one trip the best of the commercial and political capital. Will this arrangement satisfy their demands? We ask the Herald the question in all seriousness, for we cannot think that it entertains the slightest hope of securing an extension of the Puget Sound or ocean mail service to that port. The single ocean steamer now running there has not found the route profitable, and it is improbable, (as soon as the Through to Yale service has been improved) that its trips will be continued. If the people of the lower Mainland are as reasonable as the Herald gives us cause to hope the difficulty may be easily adjusted. The Westminster people have but to ask and they will receive. But if they demand impossibilities; if they spurn an advantage which is within their reach, they will soon come to be regarded at Ottawa as discontented churls—which we feel sure they are not.

THE CAISSON.

The caisson matter should be cleared up. The intention of the government has all along been to ignore local manufacturers and, if possible, throw the construction of that important adjunct of the drydock into English hands. First cost, with freight and other charges added, will bring the cost of the caisson to about $60,000. Under the shallow pretence that caissons are patented in England and can be built nowhere else, it is proposed to deprive provincial workers in iron from participation in the benefits arrising from the expenditure of that large sum. It is inexplicable that three men who draw large salaries from the province should be continually casting about for an excuse to deprive their fellow citizens of an opportunity of earning a livelihood. When the pumping machinery was wanted English manufacturers were requested to compete for the work, which involved an expenditure of about $40,000; but no local firm was asked to tender. When the dry dock was to be given out all the tenders were carried to Ottawa and after many weeks' manipulation it was announced that a Montreal firm had carried off the prize. And now we have the caisson about to pass into foreign hands without the compliment being paid local men of asking for a bid! If citizens generally pursued a similar course the budding manufactures of this city and province would not now have an existence. We shall return this important subject again. The government must give local manufacturers a chance to compete for the caisson or they will be hunted from office.

MR. SPEAKER.

The London Press on the Decoration of Right Hon. Mr. Brand.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The Times this morning referring to the bestowal of the Grand Cross of Bath upon Mr. Brand, Speaker of the House of Commons says:—"The decoration of the Speaker is a sign that the Government and the country approve of his conduct during the most arduous session of modern times, and if necessity should arise he will be armed with fresh powers and will be called upon to use them."

The Daily News deprecates the decoration of the Speaker. It says:—"It appears somewhat out of harmony with the political spirit of the age that the party in power should signify by any special mark of distinction its approval of a Speaker's conduct. Zealous opponents might be found to insinuate that the reward was conferred because the Speaker has not always held the balance quite even."

English Mail.

[Per steamer Geo. E. Starr.]

The election in Cambridgeshire to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons, caused by the retirement of Rodwell (Conservative), resulted in the return of Jas. R. Bulwer (Conservative) without opposition.

The return just issued shows that the payment of interest on the National Debt was last year £22267,000, and the amount for redemption of debt £6,040,000. To this latter sum must also be added the excess of income over expenditure in the year amounting to £933,000, making the total reduction of debt, or increase of cash balances, so far as the operations of the public revenues and expenditures are concerned, equal to £6,973,000.

RE-OPENING AT YALE.—I take pleasure in notifying my friends that I intend commencing business at the earliest possible date, under the able management of MR. D. CAMPBELL. T. SHOTBOLT.

GEN. ARTHUR SWORN IN AS PRESIDENT.

SPECULATIONS AS TO HIS COURSE

Distrusted but Judgment Suspended.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20, 3.15 a.m.—In accordance with the dispatch received from the cabinet in regard to taking the oath of office messengers were sent to different judges of the Supreme Court. First to put in an appearance was Judge John R. Brady, who was closely followed by Justice Donahue. The party, consisting of the vice-president and the judges named, besides District Attorney Rollins, Elihu Root and the eldest son of the new president, assembled in the front parlor of No. 123 Lexington street, General Arthur's residence, where the oath of office was administered and he became president of the United States. The president has not signified his intention as to when he will visit the capital, and declined to be interviewed as to his future course.

LONG BRANCH, Sept. 20.—McVeagh has just received this reply to the dispatch sent by the cabinet to General Arthur last night. It is addressed to all the members of the cabinet and says:

I have your message announcing the death of President Garfield. Permit me to renew, through you, my expression of sorrow and sympathy which I have already telegraphed Attorney General MacVeagh. In accordance with your suggestion I have taken the oath of office as president of the United States before Hon. John R. Brady, justice of the Supreme Court of New York. I will advise you further in regard to other suggestion in your telegram. C. A. ARTHUR.

The other suggestions referred to was that President Arthur should come to Long Branch this morning.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—At 10 o'clock the throng in the vicinity of Arthur's house had materially increased. At 10.30 Gov. Cornell, accompanied by Dwight Lawrence, drove to the house and had a long interview.

From the World: Roscoe Conkling left the Fifth Avenue Hotel at 10 o'clock. It was said he drove to Arthur's house. He returned at 12.

Various rumors about the purpose of the incoming administration are afloat, but high officials who are close friends of President Arthur say there will be no change of the cabinet before the meeting of congress. In regard to an extra session it is not believed any will be called. Many think even the senate will not be convened in extra session, as the time for the regular meeting is so near at hand. There is an opinion among some prominent republicans that the senate will be convened early, as under the circumstances President Arthur will feel disposed to assemble the senate to assist in starting his administration, yet these matters are mere speculations, as it is not likely President Authur has given any thought to them.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The Times has some kind words to say for Arthur who it says in his native state is highly esteemed by republicans who differ from him in politics. They admire him as a man. The Times believes he will recognize the fact that the people chose Gen. Garfield to be president and approved his policy as far as he had opportunity to carry it out, and desire no changes in it, and no more change in the personnel of the government than circumstances may make imperative. His administration begins with the shadow of death overhanging it and with a considerable amount of distrust in the minds of the people. The Times hopes and believes it will close under brighter skies and with the sunshine of national approval resting upon it.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The fair and respectful tone of editorials received here show that while President Arthur goes into office under a shadow of distrust, the press and people are willing and expect to suspend judgment and meantime accord him a full amount of respect.

DELIVERED AFTER DEATH.

A Man who Sold His Own Corpse to a Doctor for $7 50.

BAKERSFIELD, September 7.—A sensational story which is said to be strictly true come from Kernville. A man named Green, a dissolute character, sold his body about three years ago to Dr. Johnson of Kernille for $7 50. A week ago Monday Green died at Havilah, and upon being notified of the fact, Dr. Johnson took the body to Kernville, divested the bones of the flesh, and is arranging the framework of his purchase for future use.

Eastern Canada Mail.

[Per Steamer Geo. E. Starr.]

Some six weeks ago a son of T. H. Baxter, of Chatham, a boy of 12 years of age, swallowed a straw which he had been chewing, and it was supposed that it went down his windpipe. No serious results were anticipated at the time, but a few weeks later serious symptoms presented themselves, the boy suffering increasing pain day by day until Tuesday afternoon, when death came to his relief. For some days his sufferings were intense.

Eighteen fine horses shipped from New Brunswick for the States were seized at Bangor, Maine, for undervaluation, and sold by the customs authorities. Animals worth $150 each were valued on the entry papers at $50.

CONOCONK, Sept. 8.—Mrs. Thomas Robson, Jun., committed suicide by shooting herself with her husband's rifle through the heart. Mr. Robson had gone early in the morning to a neighbour's to assist at a threshing, and remained there till six o'clock. On returning home, to his utter dismay, he found his wife dead on the floor. She had been dead for some hours. Mr. Robson does not know how long, as there was no other person in the house that day. Mrs. Robson was the daughter of Richard Windrum. All the parties reside in Somerville, south-east of this village some seven miles. Mrs. Robson has had no family. She has been considered partially insane for some two months because of jealousy. She had loaded the rifle herself, bared her breast, and fired off the gun with her toe.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The charge against Chas. Dyer, of London Township, of having committed an assault upon a young girl named Elizabeth Rawlings, who was a servant in his house, was investigated before Squire Peters and Jarvis yesterday morning. As a result the prisoner was committed for trial.

ST. JOHN, Sept. 8.—Chas. H. Chandler, barrister, and ex-clerk of the city police court, died suddenly this morning. Death was caused by the bursting of a blood-vessel. Deceased was a nephew of the late Governor Chandler.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 7.—The Council of Winnipeg have ratified the bonus by-law granting $200,000 to the Syndicate, and the necessary instrument is being executed between the company and the city to carry out the pledges regarding workshops, station, and round house, which are now being commenced.

The case of the Trust and Loan Company against Trinity Church, it seems, is one that involves the salary of the Bishop of Montreal. The company, for a debt due by Trinity Church, for which they claim the Bishop became security, sues for possession of moneys of the Episcopal Endowment Fund. The Bishop claims that the interest on the money was payable to him as his salary, and the evidence showed that though he is entitled to all less than $5,000 the sum never amounted to anything so large. Should the court decide against him the supplies will thus be cut off.

A new method of investment is to be tried in Canada by French financiers. It appears that a company has been formed in Paris with a capital of 40,000,000 francs, to be loaned in Canada at remunerative rates of interest, security to be taken in movables, machinery and furniture of all descriptions.

ST. JOHN, Sept. 7.—Jewett's mill at Drury Cove, about four miles from here, was totally destroyed by fire last night, together with 40,000 feet of refuse lumber. One hundred and fourteen persons are thrown out of employment. Loss $200,000; no insurance.

Reports of the hay, grain, and root crops along the St. John and its tributaries are by no means as good as was expected.

THROUGH FROM YALE.

The Elizabeth Irving a Grand Success.

This splendid new through steamer returned from her trial trip to Yale last evening at 9:45 p. m., having made the run from New Westminster in less than six hours and that, too, against a stiff head wind after 7 o'clock. She made good time going to New Westminster with the Royal City in tow. The hull of the old steamer was then tied up and her successor took in additional freight before going up the river. In overcoming the formidable rapids of the Fraser the E. J Irving's steam steering gear came into admirable play. It acts swiftly and surely and without any expenditure of physicial power. The electric light gave the Yaleites notice of the steamer's approach for an hour or two before her arrival and when she reached her destination at 8.15 o'clock Wednesday evening a large and enthusiastic crowd greeted the steamer and her spirited captain. A salute was fired in honor of the occasion and hearty congratulations were the order of the evening. She started on her downward trip at 5:30 yesterday morning, and made the usual number of landings along the river. Both going up and returning large crowds of settlers came down to the river to look at the new boat. The electric light does admirable service on the river where both banks are brightly illuminated. In open water, however, it is not of so much service. Her head-light was not burning coming down last night, but the cabins and lower deck were as light as though the sun was shining upon them. It is expected that she will start for Yale to-morrow; a mast has to be shipped and other work completed before she again leaves.

The German ship Hugo, Newcastle, England, to San Francisco, lost at sea prior to Sept. 3, supposed in Pacific.

Steamship Los Angelos, Capt. Carroll, arrived yesterday morning from the north via Port Townsend. She has a full cargo of Wellington coal on board for San Francisco, to which port she is now bound by way of Astoria. Steamer Pilot came in last night and reported the Tidal Wave in the Straits bound for Puget Sound.

The barque Longfellow anchored in Royal Roads last night from Valparaiso. She comes for a cargo of salmon, and is consigned to Stahlschmidt & Ward of this city.

Sir John Macdonald.

Sir John Macdonald sailed from Liverpool on the 8th inst., and arrived at Ottawa on the 20th. It was intended to accord him a grand popular welcome; but on account of the death of the president the demonstration is postponed until after the funeral on Monday next.

BROKEN LEG.—Mrs. Fairbairn, who resides on Princess avenue, while picking plums on Wednesday fell from the tree and broke one of her legs between the ancle and knee. The bone was set by Dr. Milne.

THE long-looked-for gas was lit in the lower part of the city last night and the streets in consequence assumed an aspect of cheerfulness and comfort to which they have for some time been strangers.

SUMMONED.—A well-known Fort street business man has been summoned for obstructing the sidewalk with packing cases. The case will be heard to-day in the Police Court.

THE police court dog case has been taken for hearing before Justice Crease.

What Some People Say.

That the printers in the local government organ have "struck."

That they want shorter hours and longer pay.

That the printers are worthy of their "hire"—higher pay.

That the rifle uniform topped with the spike helmet is pretty.

That on parade the corps present a picturesque appearance.

That when seen on a street corner or at the theatre entrance the effect of the uniform is not so pleasing.

That the caisson for the dry dock has been ordered in England.

That it has not been ordered in England.

That the various stories the chief commissioner has told about the matter are as perplexing as Toodles' yarn about Farmer Acorn's brother.

That it will be a sin and a shame and a very suspicious affair all 'round if the caisson is not built by local makers.

That before the cement scandal has hardened the province does not desire a caisson scandal.

That if the chief commissioner does not care now for public opinion he will be made to caisson.

That the James Bay triplets were conceived in iniquity and brought forth in sin—political, of course.

That the dry dock contractors call aloud for hands to push on the work.

That the approaching firemen's election will be exciting and interesting.

That an aggressive 2-dollar pup with bristles on his back, fire in his eye, foam in his mouth and bark in his voice now roams James Bay "like a lion, seeking whom he may devour."

That he has a penchant for children and other tender tidbits.

That he deems a policeman armed with a summons a legal tender, albeit some are rather old and tough.

That the White House has startling novelties on the way.

That Mrs. Reid, a fashionable modiste, succeeds Mrs. Reynolds on Fort street.

That the G. E. Starr's trips are as regular as the tides.

That a pair of soulful eyes, a wealth of golden hair and a rosy, laughing face set with pearl-like teeth make a picture not often seen in an editor's sanctum.

That the hope is entertained that the picture will come again—soon and often.

That Mr. Cambie goes east to be examined before the railway commission.

That Island wheat is keeping Victoria's flouring mill busy.

That it is of excellent quality.

That the Princess Louise will sail for Canada on the 20th October.

That the late president was a free mason.

That the lawyers are of opinion that Guiteau cannot be legally hanged.

That it makes no difference how he is hanged so long as he is hanged.

That we read in an exchange that Euphonisba's father exploded with indignation.

That this should teach fathers not to fool with indignation.

That a young batchelor filled his hair oil bottle with glue the other day.

That a landlady's daughter did not attend a party to which she had been invited that evening.

That although, as William Shakespeare intimates, there may not be a great deal in a name, there is sometimes considerable in a letter. For instance: Where Private Hall, of Nanaimo, is credited with carrying off the Douglas cup when the winner was Private Wall.

That the best advice that can be given an aspirant is: "If you want success, succeed."

That the minister who has no time for private improvement is not a safe guide in public improvement.

How the News of the Assassination of Lincoln was Received Here.

Lincoln was shot on the evening of the 14th April, 1865; but the news did not reach this place until the 19th as there were then no telegraph lines nearer than Portland, Oregon. On the morning of the 20th the Chronicle and Colonist newspapers appeared with turned column rules. The newspaper offices, express office, banks, American consulate, government buildings, the mayor's residence and many private buildings were draped with mourning. In the afternoon the people collected en masse at the theatre, which was heavily draped with the insignia of woe. His Excellency Governor Kennedy and family, the mayor and city councillors, the government officials, the American Consul and family, and many other persons of prominence occupied seats on the stage. Mr. Francis (U. S. Consul) called the meeting to order and Mr. J. P. Couch was appointed secretary. Mr. Francis, after a few remarks, introduced Mr. Selucius Garfielde of Washington Territory (no relation, by the way, of the president now lying dead.) Mr. Garfielde was a brilliant and eloquent orator and delivered a speech full of patriotic fervor and melancholy pathos eulogistic of Mr. Lincoln. A series of resolutions were passed and the assemblage separated.

A deserting marine from H.M.S. Thetis was ordered to be given up to the proper authorities.

Moses alias Ushur, charged with stealing $204 from another Indian, made a statement exonerating himself and implicating a tribal friend. He was remanded.

MUTILATED COIN.—The mint, post-office and banks at San Francisco refuse to take mutilated coins except at a discount, and the railway and express companies will not take them at all. The merchants have agreed to receive them at the following scale: Twenty-dollar pieces with holes in them are taken for $19; silver dollars with holes in them at 85 cts.; half dollars, 35 cts.; quarters, 18 cts., and dimes 5 cts.

The Death of the President.

The flags still droop at half-mast and will continue so until after the interment of the late president on Monday. The utmost sympathy with the American nation is expressed by all classes, and every one has a word of detestation for the assassin at whose hands the victim of this most inexcusable murder has reached the grave. From all over the United States and Canada, Great Britain and the Continent there is a universal expression of sorrow. Her Majesty sent a message of condolence to Mrs. Garfield and another to minister Lowell. In London the bells were tolled at intervals on Friday. In all the cities of America and Canada no business will be transacted; while the interment is in progress, bells will be tolled and minute guns fired. All the buildings will be draped with the emblems of sorrow and all parties will join in paying a last tribute of respect to the memory of the president who lived and died a true Christian and patriot. It is proposed in this city to close the business houses and workshops on Monday, to fire minute guns from Beacon Hill battery and to toll the fire and church bells while the funeral ceremony is in progress.

A large and very unanimous meeting of American citizens was held at the American Consulate yesterday afternoon. There was scarcely standing room sufficient to accommodate those present and many not able to attend, or at a distance, sent in names together with offers of pecuniary assistance. Among those in attendance were the following:

U.S. Consul Francis, P. McQuade, Edgar Marvin, E. C. Neufelder, E. H. Ross, B. Van Volkenburgh, M. W. Waitt, J. P. Goodhue, Peter Ousterhout, Wm. Jansen, J. Bornstein, T. Lubbe, A. Ofner, W. H. Thistle, Wm. McKeon, Meyer Betchel, Joseph Hillard, Thaddeus Harper, G. M. Weston, W. C. Calhoun, W. P. Sayward, John Adair, J. F. Hawks, P. C. Dunlovy, Thos. Moody, W. G. Bowman, Frank Campbell, A. Gilmore, Joe Rhodé, Andrew Bechtel, John Kurtz, Jos. Lovett, Uriah Nelson, J. H. Heywood, Lewis Lewis, J. Dooley, J. J. Hart, G. Bossi, L. Phitter, J. H. Price, Alfred Weldhen, C. C. Fox, A. A. Green, Wm. Tinson, M. W. Watson, C. L. Watson, W. S. Wright, W. Manson, George Haynes, R. E. Bell, David Ellis, A. Crosby, D. W. Chauncey, G. A. Lange, sr., G. A. Lange, jr., F. Yost, Byron C. Holmes, J. F. Jack, Capt. Carroll, Capt. Waite, J. A. Gardiner, A. Garesché, M. Levy, W. Lewis, Charles Davis, T. W. Pierre, F. C. McLaughlin, D. Geiger, Jos. X. Blume, Wm. George, Thos. J. Minor, David Gideon, C. H. Blake, H. Hughes, Thos. Lafont, John Morley, J. Madden, Thos. Geiger.

On the meeting being called to order Allen Francis, Esq., American consul, was unanimously voted to the chair. E. C. Neufelder was chosen secretary.

The chairman stated briefly that the object of the meeting was to consider the most appropriate way of celebrating the funeral of the late president of the United States, General James A. Garfield, on Monday next. When President Lincoln was shot a meeting was held in the theatre, an oration was delivered and resolutions of condolence passed and afterwards forwarded to Mrs. Lincoln; and he thought something similar should be done on this occasion.

Mr. E. Marvin stated that a committee had waited upon Capt. Dupont, of the V. G. A., with a view of getting 100 minute guns fired on Monday afternoon at the expense of the American residents. The captain at once said that it should be done and he thought that instructions to that effect would be forwarded from Ottawa and the expense borne by the Dominion Government. The committee had guaranted the cost of 200 pounds of powder in any case, which would be the only expense attending the matter.

The chairman read a letter addressed by Capt. Dupont to himself stating that it would be advisable to purchase the powder at Turner, Beeton & Co., where a suitable article could be obtained, rather than take it from the Dominion magazine to be replaced hereafter. The cost would be $180, but probably Mr. Collector Hamly would remit the duty of 3 cts. per pound.

Mr. E. Marvin moved a resolution that a committee of four, consisting of Messrs. A. Francis, J. Kurtz, E. C. Neufelder and F. Lubbe be a committee to draft resolutions of condolence and sympathy to Mrs. Garfield.

Mr. E. Marvin's name was subsequently added unanimously and the motion carried.

Mr. P. McQuade was chosen treasurer.

After some discussion it was decided that contributions should be confined to American citizens.

On motion Messrs. J. P. Goodhue, J. Kurtz, P. Ousterhout and L. Lewis were appointed a committee to collect subscriptions to defray whatever expense might be incurred in carrying out the programme that may be agreed upon.

Mr. M. W. Waitt was in favor of opening subscription lists at once; but it was argued by Mr. E. Marvin and others that it was not yet known what the cost would be.

Mr. McQuade would head the list with $10; and Mr. E. Marvin would place his name second with the same amount if necessary.

Mr. J. P. Goodhue felt confident that funds to almost any amount would be forthcoming if needed, and he thought that the further business of the meeting should be proceeded with.

Mr. E. Marvin suggested that Mr. J. Kurtz be requested to deliver the funeral oration in the theatre on Monday next.

This proposition was received with great favor by the meeting, but Mr. Kurtz begged to be excused.

The chairman was then mentioned for that duty, but he stated that an oration would require time to prepare, and even if he had that at his disposal and could get it ready some one else would have to read it. He remarked that the committee should draft a letter of condolence as well as resolutions, and that they should be submitted to a meeting to be held on Monday next.

Mr. M. W. Waitt moved that a committee be appointed to procure an orator from the Sound or Oregon for the occasion, and that the chairman and Messrs. Marvin and Neufolder be a committee for that purpose. There would be plenty of time if a telegram went at once to whoever the committee might select, and any expense attending the matter would be cheerfully and willingly borne by the American residents.

The motion to procure some one from the other side if a suitable person could be obtained, after being discussed pro and con by several speakers, was finally lost on being put to the meeting.

Mr. J. H. Price moved that all American citizens wear a distinctive badge of mourning on the left arm for ten days from Monday next.

Seconded by Mr. L. Lewis and carried unanimously.

The meeting then adjourned to meet again at the same place at 4 o'clock p.m. on Monday next.

Death of a Noted Divine.

Yesterday's mail brought intelligence of the death on the 4th inst., at Sackville, N. B., at the residence of his nephew, of Rev. Dr. Lachlan Taylor. Few ministers of the Methodist or any other church were better known or more highly esteemed than the deceased gentleman. Dr. Taylor was born in Argyleshire, Scotland, but in 1836, while yet a boy, came to Lachute in lower Canada. His first post was on the Buckingham Mission, a very rough field of labor, and he subsequently ministered at Richmond, Prescott, Toronto, Hamilton, Brockville, Kingston, Bytown, St. Catharines and Montreal. For thirteen years, viz., from 1851 to 1864, Dr. Taylor did great work for the Upper Canada Bible Society, and was mainly instrumental in bringing it to its present high position. From 1865 to 1873 he was one of the general secretaries of the Methodist Missionary Society, a position which he filled with energy. During his life he travelled a great deal both on this continent and abroad, and he took an extended tour through Syria, Asia Minor, Egypt and the Holy land. As a lecturer Dr. Taylor was highly thought of and his tour through England in 1877-78 lecturing on the North-West was a most successful one and imparted much useful knowledge of that country. Some four years ago Dr. Taylor was attacked with a serious disease of the eyes which rendered him totally blind, a condition in which he remained with occasional intervals of dim vision. Notwithstanding this the reverend gentleman continued to lecture, and at the time of his death was engaged in delivering a new lecture on "Jerusalem the city of the Great King." In 1862 Dr. Taylor came to British Columbia and and visited Cariboo. He remained several months in the province and delivered many eloquent lectures and sermons.

A mortgage of $60,000 was recorded in the auditor's office yesterday, covering the property of H. L. Yesler and in favor of Capt. L. M. Starr. This mortgage is given to secure a loan recently made by Capt. THE DALLES, Sept. 23 —Wm. M. Hand, editor and proprietor of the Mountaineer, died at his residence in this city yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. His funeral took place this afternoon under the auspices of the Odd Fellows and A.O.U.W.—Post.

After examining the various plans submitted to them by different engineers, the Columbia and Puget Sound Railroad Co. have concluded to build their new wharf at Seattle of large piles, driven close together, and coppered or sheated with the heaviest ship-metal, thus securing them absolutely against the ravages of the teredo. The new structure will be fifty feet wide from the shore, running out between the present wharves 1200 feet.—Intelligencer.

THAT WRETCH GUITEAU.

How He Received the News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Warden Crocker visited Guiteau in jail this morning. Guiteau asked him concerning the president's condition, expressing fear that the president was nearing the end. Crocker then told him the president was dead. Guiteau instantly sank down on the bed and appeared much excited. He then rose and paced the floor and appeared to be praying. When told the particulars, he said he was glad the president's sufferings were over, and would not have committed the deed had he known he was to suffer so. Guiteau was less nervous and alarmed than the warden anticipated. He has a deadly fear of mobs, and urges the United States to protect him.

The news of the president's death did not reach the jail in which Guiteau is confined until about midnight. At that hour everything was tranquil. Guiteau was resting quietly in his cell, and there was no excitement in the neighborhood of the jail, nor was any trouble apprehended by officials. Gen. Sherman said in conversation to-night he did not expect any attempt would be made to take the prisoner, and expressed the hope that the good sense of the people of the district would prevail, and that they would allow the law to take its course.

Corkhill denies that Guiteau will be taken to New Jersey for trial. There is plenty of law here to cover his case.

Guiteau heard the bells tolling at midnight, and suspecting the cause, tried to pump the guards.

Gen. Hancock will detail a special court martial to try Sergeant Mason, who attempted to shoot Guiteau.

SYMPATHIZING ENGLAND.

THE QUEEN TO THE PRESIDENT'S WIFE SENDS SYMPATHY.

THE FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

(Dispatches to the Oregonian.)

Bliss appeared early this morning quite broken down in appearance. He had not undressed at all. "He was the greatest man as a patient I have ever seen; never a murmur from him." "Certainly, if it is necessary," was his invariable answer when asked to endure any unpleasant treatment. Oh, but he is changed now in appearance. He is so thin, and the light of his eyes, which was always a fine one, is gone out. His face has lost its natural expression. He has that thin and cadaverous look that is so painful.

Judge-Advocate General Swain, who was the only one with the president when he began sinking last night, makes the following statement: It was my night's watch with the president. I had been with him a good deal of the time since 3 o'clock. A few minutes before 10 I left Col. Rockwell, with whom I had been talking for some minutes in the lower hall, and proceeded to the president's room. On entering I found Mrs. Garfield sitting by his bedside with no other person in the room. I said to her, "How is everything going on?" She replied, "He is sleeping nicely." I said, "I think you had better go to bed and rest." I asked what had been prescribed for him to take during the night. She replied she did not know. She had given him milk punch at 8 o'clock. I then said, "If you wait a moment I will go into the doctor's room and see what is to be given during the night." She then said, "there's beef tea down stairs. Daniel knows where to get it." I went into the doctor's room and found Dr. Bliss there and asked him what was to be given during the night. He answered, "I think I had better fix up a list and will bring it to you very soon." I then went into the surgeon's room and had some little conversation with Mrs. Garfield. She felt of the president's hand, laid her hand on his forehead and said, "He seems to be in good condition," and passed out of the room. I immediately felt his his hands, feet and knees. I thought the knees felt a little cool and got a flannel cloth, heated it at the fire and laid it over his limbs. I also heated a cloth and laid it over his right hand and sat down in a chair beside his bed. I was hardly seated when Boynton came in and felt of the president's pulse. I asked him how it seemed. He replied, "It is not as strong as it was this afternoon, but very good." I said he seemed to be doing well. "Yes," he answered, and passed out. He was not in the room more than two minutes. Shortly after this the president awoke. As he turned his head on awakening, I arose and took his hand. I was on the left hand of the bed as he lay. I remarked, "You had a comfortable sleep." He then said, "O Swain, this terrible pain!" placing his right hand on his breast over the region of his heart. I asked him if I could do anything for him. He said, "Some water." I went to the other side of the room, poured out an ounce and a half of Polard water into a glass and gave him to drink. He took the glass in his hand, I raised his head as usual, and drank the water very naturally. I then handed the glass to the colored man, Daniel, who came in during the time I was getting water. Afterwards I took a napkin and wiped his forehead, as he usually perspired on awakening. He then said, "O Swain, the terrible pain! Press your hand on it!" I laid my hand on his chest. He then threw both hands to the side, and about on a line with his head, and exclaimed, "Oh, Swain, can't you stop this?" and again, "Oh, Swain!" I then saw him looking at me with a staring expression. I asked him if he was suffering much pain, and receiving no answer, I repeated the question with a like result. I then concluded he was either dying or having a severe spasm, and called to Daniel, who was at the door, to tell Dr. Bliss and Mrs. Garfield to come in immediately, and glancing at the small clock hanging on the chandelier nearly over the foot of his bed, saw it was 10:10 o'clock. Dr. Bliss came in within two or three minutes. I told Daniel to bring a lighted candle which habitually stood behind the screen near the door. When the light shone full on his face I saw he was dying. When Dr. Bliss came I said, "Doctor, have you any stimulants? he seems to be dying." He took hold of his wrist as if feeling for the pulse and said, "Yes, he is dying!" I then said to Daniel, "Run and arouse the house." At that moment Col. Rockwell came in, when Bliss said, "Let us rub his limbs," which we did. In a very few moments Mrs. Garfield came in and said, "What does this mean!" and a moment afterwards said, "Oh, why am I made to suffer this cruel wrong?" At 10:35 p m. the sacrifice was completed. He breathed his last, calmly and peacefully.

Secretary Brown says the extreme emaciation of the president was a surprise to the undertaker and embalmer. It is possible to clasp the leg above the knee with one hand. Some doubt whether if the president lies in state at Washington it will be deemed right to show the remains.

After lying in state in the rotunda of the capitol at Washington on Thursday and Friday, the remains will be taken charge of by the Pennsylvania railroad and will be conveyed direct to Pittsburg, and from thence to Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The war department will to-morrow issue an order that every military post, station, fort and arsanel shall go into mourning for thirty days. That all flags be at half mast and kept there for thirty days; that a salute of 13 guns be fired at sunrise each day for 30 days, and afterwards during the day, at intervals of half an hour one gun, from the rising to the setting of the sun, and at the close of each day a national salute of 38 guns, and that army officers all wear mourning for six months. Another order will be issued from the war department to-morrow morning announcing to the army the death of the president, and that president Arthur has been sworn in and according to law is now president and commander-in-chief of the army.

The president's remains, accompanied by the family, cabinet, friends and escort, will reach here to-morrow morning.

The departments will remain closed till after the funeral.

LONDON, Sept. 20—The News says: By common consent, President Garfield's life which has passed in full view of the public, has been free from spot or blemish, distinguished in the field, able and upright in conduct, a soldier without fear, and a citizen without reproach.

The death of the president is the common theme of conversation and regret. The same is true all over the country; every sign of sorrow and respect is manifested.

Earl Granville, secretary of foreign affairs, telegraphed Lowell: "I am deeply grieved." He has sent a cablegram to Washington direct, requesting the secretary of state to inform Mrs. Garfield and the government of the grief with which the English government has received the announcement.

Parliament not sitting prevents giving expression universally felt, which is deepened by the courage and dignity displayed by the sufferer.

A meeting of Americans in London under the auspices of the London legation, will be held as soon as proper arrangements can be made.

Accounts continue to arrive of manifestations of sympathy in the provinces of Ireland and Scotland, particularly at Cork, in consequence of its intimate connection with American shipping interests.

The bells of Chester cathedral were tolled and also some of those of churches in the west end of London.

The evening papers have published a sympathetic history of the late president.

LONG BRANCH, Sept. 20—This has been received by Mrs. Garfield: "Words cannot express the deep sympathy I feel for you. May God support and comfort you as He alone can. QUEEN, Balmoral."

LONDON, Sept. 20—The lord mayor, in taking his seat at the Mansion House today, expressed, on behalf of the citizens of London, the deepest regret at the sad news from Elberon.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 20.—The legislature adopted a motion of sympathy with the United States.

THE VERY LATEST.

WASHINGTON, Sept 21.—The jail is quiet and Guiteau is restless. He is engaged in writing reflections on the death of the president. It is now generally believed by the lawyers that he cannot be convicted of murder.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—This city is literally a place of mourning. Flags are at half-mast.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The queen telegraphed to Lowell the American minister as follows: "With deep grief I and my children learn of the sad but not unexpected news of the termination of sufferings of the president. His loss is a great misfortune and I have learned with deep sorrow that the president has passed away."

The Prince of Wales telegraphed to Lowell: "The princess and myself offer our most sincere condolence to Mrs. Garfield."

PRINCETON, Sept. 21.—The train passed at 11.35; the track was strewn for 100 yards with beautiful flowers. It passed Trenton at 11.40 and stopped at Bristol for water; passed West Philadelphia at 12.44, time one hour and 52 minutes. The same distance was made by the train taking him to Long Branch in one hour and 37 minutes. There were large crowds at the depôt who were deeply affected and stood with hats off.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—At a land meeting Sunday at Clonakilty, country Cork, 10,000 persons were present and resolutions were passed affirming the principles of the land league, and pledging those present to continue the present movement till landlords are abolished. LIVERPOOL, Sept. 19.—The Hon. Lionel Sackville will be successor to Sir Edward Thornton as British minister to the United States. He will sail from Liverpool for Philadelphia on the American steamer Pennsylvania, October 15th.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—According to all accounts there was a stormy scene in the cabinet council yesterday. Accusations and recriminations were freely exchanged in consequence of an attack on General Farre, minister of war, by Constans, minister of the interior, and by the press on the circular issued by the chief of the staff, directing the strength of all battalions sent to Africa to be 600 men. Gen. Farre offered to resign, but as his resignation would entail a disruption of the ministry, he reconsidered his offer and it was decided that he should publish a vindication of his policy in the official journal. The circular retains in actual service soldiers enrolled in 1876, contrary to the assurances of prefects on the eve of the late general elections and to financial law. General Farre's colleagues have advised the withdrawal of the circular owing to public indignation, but Gen. Farre declines to withdraw it. Roustan, French minister at Tunis, told the council that the deadlock in Africa was due to their vacillating tone. He said it should have been occupied to impress the Arabs. Roustan said 2500 men would be wanted for the balance of the year to crush the insurrection. The bey should be induced to abdicate and Taib Bey should succeed him. Roustan is instructed to hasten the bey's abdication. Gen. Lagero, it is said, has determined to occupy Tunis, but the bey refuses his consent.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—A train ran off the track between Saintes and Contras. Forty persons were injured, 20 of whom were soldiers.

NORTH AFRICA.

TUNIS, Sept. 19.—Sabatiro has summoned the caliph of Zaghauan and, after loading cannon in his presence, said if the aqueduct was again cut he would bombard the town. He imposed upon the inhabitants a war contribution of 1000 oxen and 1800 weight of barley, to be delivered in three days. For each delay the inhabitants are to be fined 1400 francs. General Lagerot issued an order for any Arab found at the aqueduct to be shot. Forty-eight French soldiers perished at Gabez in three days of ague. The excitement increases in several quarters of the city.
